

Hi All,

Well here goes, another update on the western front, more photos' now added to the 4x4 gallery and the first event of this year's mad itinerary, Round 1 of the Cheviot 4x4 challenge is to be held at Drumclog in Scotland, and for those that know me Dorothy will be staying at home this year, as I have taken up the c/o drivers seat for Scotland's very own Gordon Law. Event information click here <http://www.cheviotoffroad.com/?action=event&id=8>

This is the Beast that I will be c/o driving events booked to date are as follows,

Cheviot Challenge Drumclog Scotland April

Cheviot Challenge North Yorkshire June

Phoenix Challenge Scotland July

Mamby 90 deg Challenge Land Rover Show Lincolnshire August

3 Peaks Challenge Ireland October

Baskerville Challenge Scotland November

So it looks like its going to be a busy rear for the Annbank Service team, so I will keep you up to date on how things are progressing..

That's all for now

Andy
